

Troop 354 – Leadership Position Guide

Position: Den Chief

Description: The Den Chief is a vital connection between the Cub Scout program and the troop, serving as a mentor, leader, and role model for younger Scouts. This position supports the Cub Scout Den Leader by assisting with planning and leading activities, games, and skill instruction during den meetings and outings. Den Chiefs bring enthusiasm and energy, helping to make meetings fun and engaging while encouraging Cub Scouts to embrace the Scouting spirit. By building relationships with the younger Scouts, they foster excitement about advancing into the troop and provide guidance during their transition. This role not only helps Cub Scouts grow in their Scouting journey but also allows the Den Chief to develop valuable leadership skills and experience.

Responsibilities:

- help the Den Leader plan and lead games, crafts, and skill-building activities
- encourage advancement to Cub Scouts and prepare for their transition to the troop
- serve as a member of the Patrol Leaders' Council (PLC)
- set a good example by wearing the full Scout uniform, living by the Scout Oath and Law, and showing Scout spirit
