

Troop 354 – Leadership Position Guide

Position: Troop Guide

Description: The Troop Guide serves as a mentor and leader for new Scouts, helping them transition into the troop and navigate the Scouting program. Acting as a bridge between younger Scouts and the troop's leadership, the Troop Guide provides guidance on rank advancement, troop procedures, and outdoor skills. They foster a welcoming and supportive environment, ensuring new Scouts feel included and confident as they progress. Troop Guides work, camp, eat, and participate with their new Scout patrol during all troop activities and campouts. By being a role model and resource, the Troop Guide helps younger Scouts develop independence, teamwork, and a strong foundation in Scouting principles.

Responsibilities:

- guide younger Scouts through their first ranks and through patrol-based activities
- use the E.D.G.E. method to teach troop activities and procedures
- serve as a member of the Patrol Leaders' Council (PLC)
- set a good example by wearing the full Scout uniform, living by the Scout Oath and Law, and showing Scout spirit
