

Troop 354 – Leadership Position Guide

Position: Junior Assistant Scoutmaster

Description: The role of Junior Assistant Scoutmaster is one of honor and responsibility, reserved for older Scouts who have demonstrated exceptional leadership and dedication to the troop. Serving as a bridge between youth and adult leadership, the Junior Assistant Scoutmaster works closely with the Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmasters to mentor younger Scouts, provide guidance, and assist with troop activities. This role allows experienced Scouts to take on more advanced responsibilities, such as planning events, supporting youth leaders, and contributing to the overall development of the troop. As a JAM, you set a high standard of leadership, maturity, and Scout spirit, paving the way for the next generation of troop leaders.

Responsibilities:

- provide guidance and support to help younger Scouts
- work with Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmasters to plan and execute troop activities and events
- demonstrate maturity, responsibility, and Scout spirit
- set a good example by wearing the full Scout uniform, living by the Scout Oath and Law, and showing Scout spirit
